

Voice Celebration Workshop with Deva Premal & Miten

at the Kashi School of Yoga Sunday,
November 18th 11:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.

Deva Premal is living a musician's dream career. Barely a blip on the mainstream music industry's radar, she has sold over half a million albums and performed for hundreds of thousands of fans (or friends, as Deva would say), a loyal community that grows with each tour. As one ardent admirer says, "when Deva Premal sings, the gods listen." Deva and Miten consider their music to be "a gift, an offering...we don't care if we play for one person or one million people." This approach has resulted in increasing legions of devoted listeners (numbering much closer to the one million mark), including such notables as His Holiness the Dalai Lama, Tony Robbins, Edward James Olmos and Cher, as well as yoga communities, spas, and healing and meditation practitioners worldwide.

Deva Premal and Miten will tour North America this fall performing in 25 cities and three countries. Kashi is delighted to announce its workshop with Deva and Miten on Sunday November 18 from 11:00 - 5:00 p.m.

The German-born singer's first and still most-beloved album, The Essence, was recorded in 1998 as a teaching tool for workshops on mantra (translated from Sanskrit as "to free the mind"). Her new release, Deva Premal Sings the Moola Mantra from White Swan Records honors all spiritual paths, creeds and traditions. Deva's extraordinary voice — a silky, unmistakable, sustained vibrato — moves the mantra through a serene soundscape of sitar, bansuri, dotar, strings, piano, tabla and ambient electronica, in a suite of treatments of the single mantra.

The workshop at Kashi will consist of two parts: Satsang: Meditation with Music and Chanting from 11am-12:30 pm, and Voice Celebration from 2-5pm. "When was the last time you really opened your voice in joy and sang from your heart?" Deva Premal asks. "This workshop is for people who have a longing in their hearts to sing "YES" to life, a longing to sing "THANK YOU!" to life, a longing to open the door to their own inner being, to their own inner peace," she adds. For those who have never sung in a group before, this is a safe and nurturing environment to connect with the voice without judgment or inhibition. The cost of the workshop is $108. People may register online at www.kashi.org, or call Kashi at (772) 589-1403, ext 112. Kashi School of Yoga is located at 11155 Roseland Road in Sebastian, Florida.
